

Callender sentenced in Williams murder

By JEFF BROWN

VEST PALM BEACH—One of the most chilling and brutal murder cases in Belle Glade's history was brought to a conclusion with the sentencing of a convicted double-murderer in West Palm Beach, Friday, April 30.

Wayne Callender who pleaded guilty and was adjudicated guilty of the murder of two elderly Belle Glade residents, was sentenced to two life terms by Circuit Court Judge Carl H. Harper in West Palm Beach Friday, April 30, according to Assistant State Attorney David Acton.

According to Acton, Callender pleaded guilty to two counts of first degree murder, one count of burglary with a firearm and one count of armed robbery with a firearm.

He was sentenced to two concurrent life terms for the murders of Randolph C. Williams, 67, and his wife Lorraine Williams, 63. According to Acton, Harper placed a minimum of 25 years to be served on the terms before Callender is eligible for parole.

He was also sentenced to two 75 year terms on the burglary and robbery charges. Those terms will run concurrently with each other but consecutively with the life terms for murder.

Harper placed a three year minimum on the latter two terms before Callender is eligible for parole, and also retained court jurisdiction over his parole for the first third of his term.

This means that the court may veto any parole he is granted for the first 25 years of those 75 year terms, said Acton.

The 25 year minimum on the life terms and the three year minimum on the burglary and robbery terms place a total of at least 28 years Callender must serve in prison before he can be paroled.

The court can veto his release on parole for another 22 years after that, according to Acton.

Callender had pleaded guilty to the slayings of the Williams in their NW Avenue I home in Belle Glade August 5, 1981.

Their son, Randolph C. Williams, Jr., a cerebral palsy victim, was spared by the killer.

Callender was arrested by the Belle Glade Police Department August 10 and charged with the murders.

At the time of his arrest, he was using the assumed name of Winston Small and was attempting to leave town.

His arrest came on the heels of an intensive manhunt conducted by the local police to find the killer responsible for the crime which sparked fear in many area residents.

South Bay still has no chief

By ALMA HENRY

SOUTH BAY—The Palm Beach County Sheriff Department will continue with the police protection for the City of South Bay it looks like for several more weeks.

The South Bay City Commission delayed taking any action on the naming of the new police chief at its regular city commission meeting Tuesday night.

Although the Commission had promised the residents of the city at the last workshop a chief would be named at the next regular meeting, Mayor Donald Tanner said the Commissioners needed more time to investigate some of the candidates.

Tanner said he expects a decision will be made before the next regular scheduled meeting on May 18th.

Tanner said a special meeting would be called to name the new police chief. The list of applicants have been narrowed down to five.

A former dispatcher with the City of South Bay asked at Tuesday's meeting would the commission be hiring the dispatchers and other help for the police department.

Tanner said the new police chief would be responsible for the hiring of the police department employees.

In other business before the Commission:

Jim Shropshire of the South Bay Days requested a alcoholic beverage license approval from the Commission. Action was delayed on the matter until the City Attorney can research and study a city ordinance on the subject.

The commission granted the use of the Recreation Building at the Douglas Tanner Park to the Eastern Star Chapter of South Bay.

Voters return incumbents to office

By JEFF BROWN

PAHOKEE—About 58.5 percent of the registered voters in Pahokee went to the polls Tuesday to return four incumbents to office.

Duncan Padgett was returned to office for an 11th term with a resounding victory over Nick Gingery. Padgett pulled down 777 votes to Gingery's 170.

"I thought that it would be a little closer than this," said Padgett afterwards. Padgett had served as mayor of Pahokee for 20 years before retiring in 1980. He was brought out of retirement in 1981 when Norma Norman resigned.

Carmen Salvatore III, who had served as police chief for 13 years, was re-elected with an overwhelming margin also. He received 686 votes. Charles M. "Sonny" Brown received 186 and Robert L. "Bob" Welty 94.

Students excell in Academic Games...

Glades students among nation's best

By ALMA HENRY

EATONTON, GA.—Eleven area students recently proved they can compete academically with the best students from across the nation.

The Palm Beach County All Stars' 45 member team returned from the National Academic Games Competition held in Eatonton, Ga., with eight team and individual national championships.

Eleven members of the team were from the Glades and represented both the area's public high schools and two private schools.

Palm Beach County is one of many areas to send team regularly to the games. According to David Campbell, a specialist assigned to the West Area Administrative Office and one of the co-directors of the team said, other areas that participate includes New Orleans, Detroit, Ann Arbor, Pittsburgh, McKeesport, New Castle, Allegheny Valley and Seneca Valley.

He added that over 800 students participated in the games this year.

The three subjects areas covered at the games were Math, Language Arts and Social Studies.

Campbell said the Academic Games committee presents a Grand Award called Sweepstakes. The Palm Beach County junior team placed fourth in Sweepstakes, the highest a local team has ever placed in the national competition.

Campbell said it is extremely difficult to win this award. "You must score high in all games to earn points towards Sweepstakes," said Campbell.

Mrs. Ava Sue Hickerson, of the West Area gifted program at Palm Beach Junior College was presented with the Jim Davis Outstanding Coordinator Award.

Mrs. Hickerson, also a codirector of the team was presented with the award for her "outstanding dedication beyond the call of academic duty [Continued on Page 3]

Governor's rep to visit this area

BELLE GLADE—Marvin Davies, Special Assistant to Gov. Bob Graham will be the keynote speaker at the La Chic Mesdames Social Club of Belle Glade Annual Affairs.

Davies will speak at the Lake Shore Civic Center on Thursday, May 6 at 8 p.m.

A native of Hampton, Fla., Davies is the first black to be appointed to a governor's transition team in the history of Florida. His most recent appointment was to Gov. Graham's personal staff as his special assistant. Davies advises the Governor on appointments, budget, and policy-making decisions. Prior to this appointment, Davies has been for two years serving as Deputy Director in the Graham/Mixon Campaign for Governor.

Before joining the Graham Campaign, Davies was engaged in his own management consultant firm specializing in affirmative action, minority economic development, low and moderate income housing, health maintenance organizations, grants and proposal development, employee-employer relations and providing technical assistance and training in industrial management. ple who called me and showed their support," said Salvatore of the race.

Betty J. McCoy swamped her opponent, Peggy Vaughan, with 777 votes to 143.

Councilman Jon C. Mock, the only other incumbent running for re-election, was the victor in one of just two close races in the city elections.

Mock pulled 510 votes to edge his opponent, Wynonia Cummings, who received 415.

"I thought it would be a pretty close one," said Mock. "But we pulled it out. We had some real good support."

Mock was re-elected in the group three city council race.

In the group two city council race for the seat being vacated by Council Chairman George Rashley, Sr., Ad Bush easily outpolled her four opponents to gain election.

Bush received 681 of the 937 votes cast in that race. Her closest opponent was George "Walter" Rashley, Jr., who picked up 149 votes. Rashley is the son of the current council chairman.

James C. "Jim" Usher received 56 votes and Helen F. Webb 51.

"I really thought there might be a run-off," said Bush after her victory was announced.

There will be a run-off election Tuesday, May 11, to decide to decide the winner in the group one city council race. Five candidates in that race pulled a total of 932 votes, but none of them could capture the mandatory majority.

Ronnie Graydon led the pack with 434 votes to be followed by Ramon Horta, Jr., with 180. Those two will face each other in the run-off.

Glen H. Carrick received 157 votes, Gilbert "Skip" Lanham 100 and Diane Stevens 61. Those three will not be listed on the ballot.

Hugo Raineri, who currently holds the group one council seat, didn't run for a second term.

The election saw 1,033 voters go to the polls between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m., representing about 55.5 percent of the 1,786 registered voters in Pahokee. Fifty-two of the ballots were absentee.

The run-off election will be held next Tuesday, May 11, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the fire station.

The new council members will take office after the run-off election is tabulated and the winner determined. Two members will be sitting on the council when it holds its next business meeting: Bush and the winner of the Graydon-Horta run-off.

"I'm pretty sure I'll be able to work with them," said Padgett. "It just takes a little effort."

Gelavert was injured and the driver of the automobile he was a passenger in was killed when their vehicle, travelling north on U.S. 27, swerved into the southbound lane and struck a tractor and trailer being driven south by Charles Keith Bobbins, 32, of 135 East Johnson Avenue in Lake Wales, Florida.

The accident occurred at about 6:15 a.m., according to the highway patrol, and no charges were pressed.

TALLAHASSEE--The Florida Highway Patrol graduated 49 members of its 64th recruit class in ceremonies at the Christian Heritage Church in Tallahassee on Friday, April 30, Patrol Director Eldridge Beach announced.

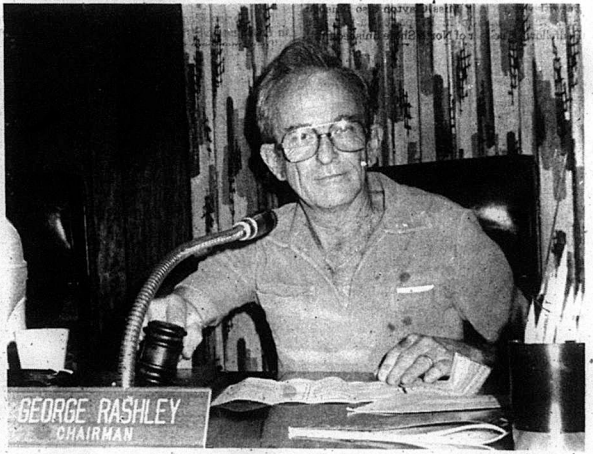

Honorable Doyle Conner, Commissioner of Agriculture, delivered the commencement address. Class President Thomas Carl Przybylowicz, Pensacola, responded on behalf of the class. The ceremonies climaxed an 11-week period of training at the Florida Highway Patrol Academy in Tallahassee where the recruits have spent 514.5 hours of intensive training in the classroom preparing for their duties.

J. A. Mims of Belle Glade was among the graduates participating in the ceremony.

A spokeswoman for the group said the building will be used for meetings for the Eastern Stars Youth Group.

Commissioner Rennick Morris also asked that the Commission look into city ordinances he called "too strict" to allow city residents to build moderate homes on their property.

Morris requested that the item be placed on the agenda of the next regular city commission meeting.

Morris said he has seen homes being built on smaller lots in the cities of Belle Glade and Greenacres that are disallowed in the City of South Bay.

History of the Everglades

20 YEARS AGO
THE BELLE GLADE HERALD
MAY 3, 1962

The Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce board of directors unanimously passed a resolution endorsing a 76-bed hospital with a core facilities for 125 beds.

The hospital, according to the resolution, would be built on the site of the hospital already existing in Belle Glade.

The existing hospital, since it was already paid for and debt free, would be held and converted into not less than 35 accredited beds.

The entire hospital would be known as Belle Glade Memorial Hospital.

The chamber's resolution came in the middle of a controversy about whether the Southwest and Northwest Palm Beach County Hospital Districts should be combined and a consolidated hospital should be built to serve both Belle Glade and Pahokee.

Rosa Nash, the new postmistress of Belle Glade, received a certificate of her formal appointment at a dinner in her honor.

Mrs. Nash had been acting postmistress since the previous April. Before then, she was assistant postmaster and clerk in the local office for 23 years.

Mills H. Byrom, an agricultural engineer and leader of Long Fiber Plants Harvesting and Processing Investigations, was presented with a Certificate of Merit and a cash award by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The certificate was made for outstanding leadership and research in harvesting and processing long fiber vegetables such as ramie and kenaf.

Byrom's work began in Boynton Beach but had been going on at the Everglades Experiment Station here since the early 1940s.

The sale of Okelacana Sugar Mill to Cuban sugar producers who planned to expand the capacity of the mill was announced.

The mill, owned by the Columbia (S.C.) Bank for Cooperatives, was reportedly sold to Salvastiano Garcia Diaz of Havana for approximately $3.6 million.

The new owners promised to continue to cooperate with local growers by milling their sugar cane.

The municipalities in the Glades unanimously asked the county commission to set uniform closing hours for liquor establishments.

The city fathers of South Bay, Belle Glade and Pahokee asked the county commission to use the hours already in effect in Belle Glade as a guide for all three cities and the unincorporated areas in western Palm Beach County.

Those operating hours were from 8 a.m. to midnight Monday through Friday and from 8 a.m. Saturday to 1 a.m. Sunday. All bars were closed from 1 a.m. Sunday to 8 a.m. Monday.

Naval Aviation Cadet Samuel J. Simmons, son of Dr. and Mrs. S.J. Simmons of Belle Glade, completed the first phase of his naval aviation training with a solo flight at Whiting Field in Milton.

In the meantime, Ernest A. O'Neal, a seaman recruit from Belle Glade, was undergoing recruit training at the U.S. Naval Training Center in San Diego, Calif.

Last week, one of our editorials argued that the Federal Communications Commission not ban religious programming from television and radio. What brought our editorial about was a report that Madalyn Murray O'Hair, the woman who had successfully brought suit in the 1960s to remove prayer from schools, was trying to eliminate religious broadcasting as well.

Apparently, religious programming is safe for the immediate future.

Rev. Don Richardson of the First United Methodist Church of Clewiston brought in copies of "The United Methodist Reporter," which within the past two weeks addressed the O'Hair report.

Madalyn Murray O'Hair is not petitioning the Federal Communications Commission to remove all religious broadcasting from the airwaves," the Reporter stated in a front page story April 30.

"Despite that fact, the FCC is being inundated with a new surge of letters urging that the efforts of the famed atheist be stopped," the Reporter continued.

A National Catholic News Service story written by Jim Lackey reports that the number of letters urging the FCC to deny Mrs. O'Hair's petition jumped from 56,000 to 223,000 in March.

Lackey says that the O'Hair case is an example of the false rumor that won't go away.

The Reporter said that the rumor apparently started when in the early 1970s two broadcasting producers — but not Mrs. O'Hair — urged the FCC to examine the fact that religious broadcasters were being granted FCC licenses to air educational programming.

The two producers maintained that the religious broadcasts were not presenting educational material, but rather religious propaganda and thus should not be given the privilege of an educational license.

In 1976, the FCC rejected the petition, saying an examination of only religious broadcasts would be a violation of the separation of church and state.

"Only God knows what happened next," wrote Lackey in the National Catholic News Service story, "but somehow the FCC's number on the case, RM 2493, and the name of Mrs. O'Hair became linked, and the letters began flowing in." Most of the letters arriving at the FCC cite the case as RM 2493 and point to Mrs. O'Hair as the instigator.

In 1978, 2.3 letters on the case were received by the FCC. The total fell to 500,000 in 1981, but in March a new surge of letters poured in.

Millions of dollars on postage have been spent by petitioners and the FCC has probably had to hire extra workers to deal with the flood of mail.

We are relieved that RM 2493 is a dead issue and are pleased to set the record straight.

American voters...

Take note of Pahokee's example

The rest of the nation should follow Pahokee's example.

Almost of 60 percent of the eligible voters in Pahokee turned out to cast ballots in this week's city election.

That's about twice the percentage of eligible voters who went to the polls across the United States in the 1980 Presidential election.

The citizens of Pahokee have shown a civic mindedness seldom seen in this country these days.

Hopefully their concern will make a better government in Pahokee. It will certainly make the members of that government more responsive to the voters.

An active, vocal public can change things. It could make Pahokee a better place to live. It could do the same things for any town in the nation and any the nation as a whole.

We salute the voters of Pahokee and urge the rest of the nation to follow suit. Use your right to vote. Register and cast your ballots.

Shifts to country's rural areas

One of the most far-reaching things the 1982 census will show, according to population experts who have just begun to analyze the billions of figures coming out of last year's count, is that for the first time since the census was begun in 1970, rural areas and small towns had greater rates of growth than the metropolitan areas.

At the same time, between 1970 and 1980 there was an accelerated movement of people out of the industrial regions of the North and into the South and West.

Preliminary census data also confirm some of the earlier findings of earlier surveys, including the decentralization of population within the metropolitan areas and the aging of the U.S. population.

Perhaps the most unexpected result of the 1980 census was the size of the total count of the population, which exceeded the predictions of the experts by almost five-million people.

According to the preliminary count, the resident population of the U.S. on April 1, 1980, was 228,504,825, representing an increase of more than 11 percent over 1970.

The original purpose of taking a census every 10 years, as laid down by the founding fathers in the Constitution, was to provide a basis for apportioning representation in the House of Representatives and for apportioning taxation among the states.

As we all know, the census has grown way beyond that and now seeks to learn more than a lot of people want to tell the government.

In the meantime, look out rural America, more city slickers are coming.

Mica amendment said to help reduce flow of aliens

An amendment offered by Congressman Dan Mica, (D-Florida), to last year's Foreign Aid bill has been cited by both the Administration and a House Foreign Affairs Committee study with helping to reduce the flow of illegal immigration from Haiti to the United States.

According to government figures, the illegal boat flow of Haitian migrants to the United States has been reduced to a trickle (90% fewer than known entries of a year ago) with Immigration and Naturalization Service statistics showing only 46 arrivals in December 1981 and 26 arrivals in January 1982. The Mica Amendment established conditions that the Haitian Government must comply with regarding (1) human rights; (2) cooperation with the United States in halting illegal immigration; (3) and Haiti's cooperation in implementing U.S. development assistance programs in Haiti, before the Development Assistance Program to Haiti would continue.

Mica announced that the Administration has just sent to Congress their certification that Haiti has complied with the conditions set forth by this amendment. With this certification, he stated, the Development Assistance Program to Haiti will continue for this fiscal year. The F.Y. 1983 Foreign Assistance Authorization request is now pending before the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Mica has interested that because of the success of the certification program, he will reintroduce his amendment for the coming fiscal year as the original certification was for a one year period only. "It was pleased that both documents, the Administrations certification and the House Foreign Affairs Committee study, found my amendment and request for interdiction as a positive step in halting the illegal influx of aliens. It was my desire in introducing this amendment not only to stop the flow of illegal migrants into Florida but also to guarantee that the assistance provided to Haiti would go to the people for whom it was intended. I believe this program has been successful and we will continue to work to improve the lives of Haitians in Haiti," said Mica.

Mother's Day brings abundance of calls

Southern Bell expects almost 1.6 million greetings to be exchanged between Floridians and their mothers on May 9. This number is a 7 percent increase over last year's calling volume of more than 1.4

million. "Besides the volume of calls, the type of calls will contribute to making May 9th one of Southern Bell's busiest calling days for 1982," explains Local Manager, Bob White. "The network is designed to handle the heavy weekday calling from businesses in cities. A typical Mother's Day call is a longer call from one suburb to another."

White suggests calling early in the weekend to avoid the rush and take advantage of the lowest discount period. Direct dialed calls are a 60 percent savings from normal daytime rates when placed between 11 p.m. on Friday and 5 p.m. on Sunday. If you do decide to wait and call Sunday, White recommends placing your call between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. White offers some other helpful suggestions to make Mother's Day calling as easy as possible:

1. Dial direct because it costs less than operator-assisted calls. 2. When making calls to the Pacific West Coast on Sunday, call after 11 p.m. and take advantage of the low rates and time zone differences.

Shortage affects about 3,000

BELLE GLADE - About 3,000 local Florida Power and Light customers were without electricity briefly Thursday, April 29, due to the state-wide brown-out created by a motor failure, according to Dale Stapp, Glades District Manager for FPL.

All of the affected 3,000 customers were in Belle Glade, according to Stapp, who said the power shortage was corrected within about 45 minutes of the initial black-out in the area.

The shortage was created when an electrical motor failed at Turkey Point nuclear power plant number four, said Stapp.

History

Terms such as "gas hog" were being used to describe that variety of the motoring species who insisted on getting a larger government gasoline ration than he legitimately needed.

Belle Glade policemen were granted an increase in salary at the regular meeting of the commissioners. Acceptance of a bid by the Glades Chevrolet Co. on a new truck for the water department was voted on. The three-quarter truck was a Chevrolet and the cost to the town was $10,277.

P.R. deMoya, chairman of the Pahokee-Canal Point defense council, wrote a letter to the women of Pahokee in which he sought their assistance in putting to good use the sewing machines in the sewing room at Pahokee City Hall.

DeMoya pointed out that the idleness of the machines would bring about action on the part of the red cross to move the machines to another point where they would be used in the war effort.

50 YEARS AGO THE EVERGLADES NEWS MAY 13, 1932

An over-heated wood-burning cook stove located close to the entrance wall in the White House cafe started a blaze that destroyed a restaurant, a dance hall and a rooming house.

The Pahokee fire truck and the sugar company's fire truck arrived and managed to save a filling station and other buildings from the fire located in Canal Point at Conners Highway and Pahokee Road.

Rabies were feared in Belle Glade due to the approaching warm weather and a ruling was issued by the city council instructing the clerk to post notices to the effect that an ordinance would be issued.

The new ordinance stated that any dog caught on the streets without a muzzle would be killed on sight.

A new subdivision was on sale in Belle Glade with lots being 53 feet wide by 130 feet deep. These lots were three blocks from Main Street and were being sold for $250.

The groom-elect is the son of Mr. Charles West of Dublin, Ga. and Mrs. Faye West of Cowan, Ga.

The bride-elect graduated from Pahokee High School in 1981 and is employed at Kimball's Ice Cream Parlor in Pahokee.

Mr. West attended Pahokee High School and is currently employed at W.M. Thies and Sons, as warehouse manager.

The June 12 wedding will take place at the Canal Point Baptist Church with the Rev. Ray Stedham officiating.

Group plans extravaganza

BELLE GLADE—President Mable Belle of the Florida Association of Women and Girls Clubs, Inc., held a meeting recently at the home of Vice-president Willie M. Adams to finalize plans for the Miss FAWC Extravaganza.

The Miss FAWC Extravaganza is one of the most colorful highlights of the annual state convention. The 23rd Annual Convention of the Florida Association of Women and Girls Clubs will convene June 19 at the Hyatt of the Palm Beaches.

Among those in attendance at the meeting were Mrs. Louise E. Taylor, Past State President; Mrs. J. Denson, LaVoise Taylor, Gertrude Hanford, Willie M. Adams, and Ida Mitell, secretary to the president.

Mrs. Joan Bass of Belle Glade, chairperson of this event was unable to attend due to illness.

Other local members of the Miss FAWC Extravaganza committee are Mrs. Barbara W. Kight, Mrs. Margaret Poole, Ms. Daisy McCoy and Ms. Alma Henry.

Bank plans spring art exhibit

BELLE GLADE—A Spring art exhibit will be held at Florida First National Bank beginning Tuesday, May 11 through May 21.

The Monday Painting class under the direction of Margaret Earwood will present the exhibition.

A reception will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., on the opening date.

There will be a popularity selection of the paintings with ribbons awards for first, second, and third place.

Mrs. Earwood said the "show promises to be most interesting to the general public. The exhibit is open to the public."

20th crop celebration is a grand event

FREE RIDES were provided for the kids at the 20th crop celebration Saturday.

BELLE GLADE - It really couldn't have been any better.

There weren't any clouds and there was no threat of rain. A light breeze kept the temperature from soaring too high.

Rides for the kids were free. The food was served at no charge.

Two bands provided a continuous flow of music to dancers and casual listeners.

And every half hour, three prizes were awarded. In short, everything went as planned.

About 2,900 people gathered at the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida grounds Saturday, May 1, to celebrate the co-op's 20th crop.

The crowd consumed about 2,000 pounds of barbecued ribs and 800 chickens, according to Allan MacPhail, security manager at the co-op.

"It was just a beautiful day," said MacPhail.

"It was super. A grand event. I'm hearing nothing but compliments."

The Port Committee did the cooking, starting at 2 a.m. that morning.

"They did a grand job," said MacPhail.

Beer was distributed throughout the day at trailers with four taps on their sides, enabling the thirsty to draw their own.

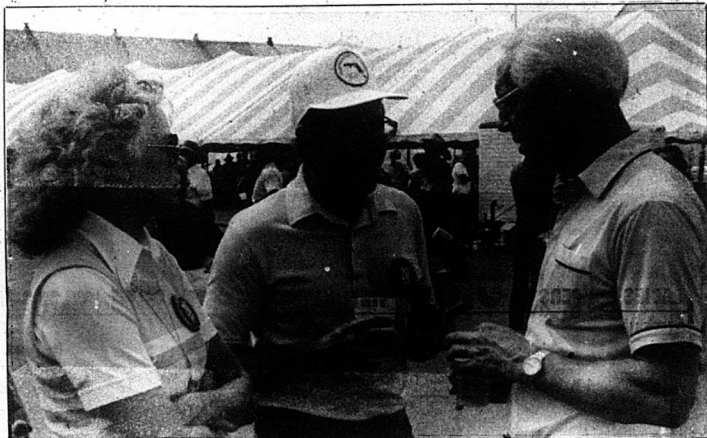

For those who did not indulge in beer, free sodas were available.

And every half hour, prizes were given away in a drawing. The tickets were given away at the gate to those who entered.

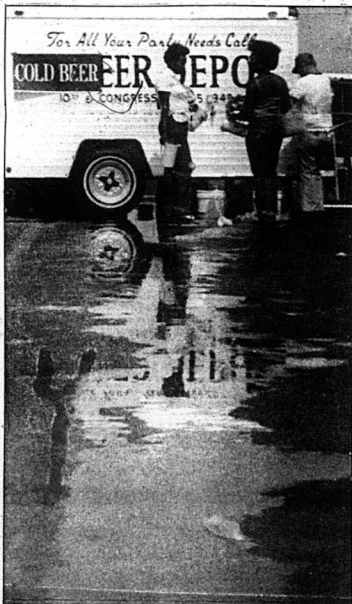

Children were treated to amusement park rides. International Brass from Miami and Florida Power and Grass provided the music.

George Wedgworth, president of the co-op, interrupted the festivities only once, just long enough to honor 34 employees who had been with the co-op since its inception 20 years ago.

A lot of people were very, very pleased," said MacPhail who said the success of this year's party could improve the chances for another.

GEORGE WEDGWORTH, right, president of the co-op, converses with two of the guests at the celebration. Sunny skies and nice weather prevailed throughout the day.

A RIVER OF BEER flowed from the co-op grounds when free beer was available for the taking Saturday, May 1, to the guests and employees of the co-op.

JIM KELLEY, President and Chairman of the Board of Florida National Bank, welcomes new board member Marlan Chapman.

Florida National names new director

BELLE GLADE - Jim Kelley, President and chairman of the board of Florida National Bank, Belle Glade, has announced the election of Marlan Chapman to the board of directors.

Chapman, the President of Kermit Chapman and Sons, Inc., Belle Glade has lived here since 1955. He and his wife, Anna May, have two daughters, one in Virginia and the other in Orlando.

"We're so happy to have Marlan on the Board," said Kelley, "it will be an asset to the bank."

Crime Prevention Association banquet

The Palm Beach County Crime Prevention Officer Association (P.B.C.C.P.O.A.) will recognize both citizens and public servants who have contributed to the success of P.B.C.C.P.O.A. programs in the past year at an awards presentation at the Colonnades Hotel on Tuesday, May 11. A reception will be held from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. with the awards presentation from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. The organization will express its appreciation to those people who organized and operate the various crime prevention programs such as, Citizens Crime Watch; Battered Spouse and Child Abuse; Industrial, Commercial and Residential Security; the crime prevention; "Benny the Burglar" - public commercials, and perhaps the most successful of all, Crime Stoppers of Palm Beach County.

The Palm Beach County Crime Prevention Officers Association members includes representatives from each criminal justice agency in the county.

The group has as its objective: the promotion, education, and involvement of every citizen in crime awareness and prevention.

The most dramatic project sponsored by the P.B.C.C.P.O.A. is Crime Stoppers. Since Sept. of 1981, weekly unsolved felony crimes have been reenacted for broadcast on television and radio.

If a viewer or listener has information about the reenactment, or any serious crime, they can call 689-TIPS and tell the Crime Stoppers "TIPS" telephone line what they know.

The caller can remain completely anonymous and still receive a reward.

Since the first crime reenactment was broadcast, the Crime Stoppers program has been responsible for identifying suspects in murders, armed robberies, burglaries and vice crimes, as well as the location of major organized crime operation, caches of drugs, and stolen property.

Crime Stoppers of Palm Beach County consists of concerned citizens serving as its board of directors and is totally funded by private donations. Sgt. Pam Stanley of the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office was recently appointed as the Administrative Director and Law Enforcement Liaison for the Crime Stoppers program.

Her regular duties with the Sheriff's Office include Special Projects, Public Education, and she is commander of the Community Relations Unit.

Police and citizens have joined together in a mutual effort to solve the problem of crime in Palm Beach County. Through the awards presentation the organization will express its gratitude and appreciation for the contribution of the outstanding people in our communities who have helped to make the crime prevention programs a success, and Palm Beach County a better place to live.

Among those invited to attend and participate in the awards presentation are all the police chiefs of Palm Beach County, Sheriff Richard P. Willie, Undersheriff Charles McCutcheon, State Attorney David Budworth, First Assistant State Attorney Barry Krieger, and member of the local media.

WSWN Radio Station of Belle Glade will receive a Media Award at the banquet.

Softball tournament slated in Pahokee

PAHOKEE - An early bird softball tournament will be held May 14-16 at Padgett Park, Pahokee, sponsored by the Belle Glade Junior Woman's Club.

Entry fee for the tournament is $80 per team and the team roster must be in before the first game. Deadline for entries is May 11.

The games will be played under the ASA slow pitch rules with double elimination.

2 vie for amateur kick-boxing championship

By JEFF BROWN
BELLE GLADE - Two Belle Glade youths will be vying for amateur kick-boxing championships Monday, May 10, on Singer Island.
A third youth who has already captured the South Florida Karate Championship, will be making his kickboxing debut in a non-title match against the Florida featherweight champ.

Anthony Williams, 14, of 924 SW Avenue C Place, will be trying to bring the Florida junior flyweight championship to Belle Glade when he meets the current champ, Chris Anderson, in the Colonnades Beach Hotel, next Monday night.

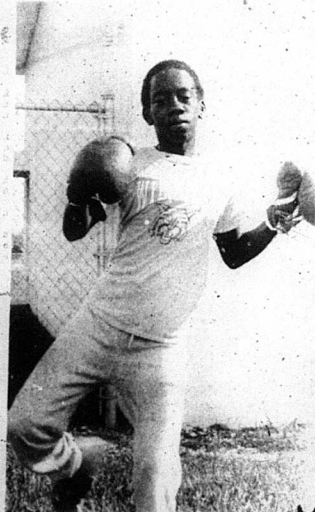

Curtis Jones, 15, of 516 SW Seventh Street, will be going after the Florida flyweight title when he's pitted against Nirio Rubiera that same night.

Ronald Sanders, 15, of 924 SW Avenue E, will make his kick-boxing debut against Donald Alfred in another five round match-up.

Sanders is the ex-South Florida Karate champion and Alfred is the Florida featherweight champion, but the match is not a title bout.

The matches, scheduled to begin at 8 p.m., are sponsored by Stewart Pontiac and Steve Shephard, the professional world middle weight kickboxing champion who is out of West Palm Beach.

Kick-boxing is relatively new to the American sports scene which

Crusaders honor athletes

By JEFF BROWN

BELLE GLADE—About 50 student athletes involved in nine sports, including the athletes of the year, were honored at the Christian Day School All Sports Banquet May 3.

The awards ceremony, which was held in the school gymnasium at 7 p.m. Monday night, culminated in the awarding of trophies to the male and female athletes of the year.

Senior Lisa Acree, who was named the female athlete of the year, was also named most valuable player in volleyball and best defensive player in girls varsity basketball.

Cary McKee was named the male athlete of the year after taking the trophy for the best lineman player in varsity football.

Earl Lookbill, the junior varsity basketball coach and assistant football coach, presented the awards to the winners, whose identities were kept secret until their announcement.

Lookbill told the crowd of students, parents, teachers, coaches and school board members that the winners had to be juniors or seniors who were judged on their spirituality, their excellence in sports and their teammanship. They had to be humble enough to be surprised when named, he said.

Six students received the seven awards in varsity football.

James Barnwell, the only double-honoree on the squad, was honored as the Palm Beach Times Unsung Hero and as the most valuable player on the 19 member team.

Pipo Paz was named the best offensive player, Scott Hudson the best defensive player, McKee the best lineman and Juan Armas the most improved player on the team. Robert Echols was given the coach's award.

"The potential in this school is unreal," said football Coach Woodie Salvatore. "I've never seen so much potential. I think you'll see some surprising things with next year's varsity club.

These boys are ready to play."

Robin Rashley was named the most improved player on the volleyball squad. The coach's award went to Angela Miller and Shari Lynch, and Acree was the team's most valuable player.

"We had an unusual season," said Coach Kathy McReynolds. "We started strong. In the end, we had a few tragedies. In the end we ended up playing districts with our bench."

Jose Garcia was the best offensive player on the junior high school team. Juan Marin the best defensive player and David Chamblee received the coach's award.

Every member of the junior high school team except one goes up to the junior varsity level, said Coach Joe Guethle.

The junior varsity basketball awards went to Carlos Rodriguez as best defensive player, Tim Mann as best offensive player, Philip Echols as most improved player and Jorge Martinez who received the coach's award.

"God has taught us a lot of things this year," said Coach Earl Lookbill. "He taught us to be patient. He taught me to endure officials, even when they're wrong. That wasn't easy to learn."

Sheri Mann copped the honors as the best of offensive player and most valuable player in girls basketball. Acree was named best defensive player, Kimberly Chamblee the most improved and Angela Miller received the coach's award.

"We struggled but we never gave up. Never," said Coach McReynolds of the team's season. "If you think we were short this year, wait till next year."

In boy's varsity basketball, Luis Garcia was named most valuable player and Alex Morales received the coach's award. Scott Hudson was named the best offensive player, Tavi Garcia the best defensive player and Roly Ramos the most improved.

JV and varsity cheerleaders were also honored at the banquet. Kay Davis, the JV cheerleader sponsor, recounted the squad's trip to a camp in Gainesville.

"To show you what we're made of, we didn't lose a single girl," she said. "We went up with 15 girls and we came back with 15."

The JV best all around cheerleading award went to Mikiah Corbin, and the varsity award went to Maria Figueras.

Sheri Mann was honored as the leading hitter and most valuable player on the softball squad. Brenda Rowland was given the golden glove award. Brandi Shunk the most improved player trophy and Celia Pate the Charlie Hustle honors.

Jose Ramos was named the best offensive player in JV baseball. Jesus Mesquita the best defensive player and Peter Rawls the most improved player. David Chamblee received the Charlie Hustle trophy.

"I'd like to thank the backstop and the bases for always showing up," said Coach Bob Hensley, commenting on the team's lack of attention by spectators and the media.

Juan Armas and Alex Morales were the big winners in the baseball trophies presentation. Armas was the team's leading hitter and best all around player.

Morales was named the team's most valuable player and co-golden glove winner. Tracey Shealey shared the golden glove honors with Morales.

Mirto Vigoa was named most improved player and Tavi Garcia was the recipient of the Charlie Hustle award.

"I was told when I first came here that this was a baseball school and we'd win state or else," said Coach Salvatore. "Well, we didn't win states."

The Crusaders baseball team was eliminated from district play in the finals this year, thus ending their quest for the state championship.

Renza Echols, president of the athletic council at CDS, presented a special gold medal to Joe Guethle, describing the junior high school basketball coach and assistant softball coach as "Christian Day's own version of Bruce Jenner" for his contribution to the athletic program at the school.

CDS Principal Arvine Bell delivered the welcoming address to the crowd of about 250 and Lookbill delivered the devotional before the meal and the closing. Glenn Bain acted as master of ceremonies.

BASEBALL TROPHIES went to Juan Armas, Tracey Shealey, Mirto Vigoa and Luis Garcia.

CDS GIRLS BASKETBALL TROPHIES went to Lisa Acree, Kimberly Chamblee and Angela Miller.

JV BASEBALL HONOREES were Jose Ramos, Jesus Mesquita, Peter Rawls and David Chamblee.

VARSITY FOOTBALL TROPHIES were awarded to, from left, James Barnwell, Pipo Paz, Scott Hudson, Cary McKee, Juan Armas and Robert Echols.

Kick-boxing—

has grown in popularity in large part due to the coverage given it by cable television.

According to Glenn Lettingham, manager and trainer of the Tai Chi Boxing Club in Belle Glade, the club practices in a match must land a minimum of eight kicks per round and may use any combination of punches and kicks to fight their opponent.

Points are subtracted if a fighter does not land his minimum eight kicks in any round.

The local Tai Chi Boxing Club has been in existence for three years, said Lettingham. The club practices from 5 to 7 p.m. during the week at the Lakeshore Park.

Williams, Jones and Sanders have been practicing for a month in preparation for their upcoming rounds.

The use of punches and kicks is strictly up to the individual fighter.

Some may prefer to use the kick as their primary weapon, others the punch and others may be adept at mixing it up.

"I like to mix it up," said Jones. All three are Lakeshore Middle School students, according to Lettingham.

KEEPING THE FAITH

"People who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs." 1 Timothy 6:9,10 NIV.

"One of the battles that has to be fought ever since in awhile in Florida is over additional legalized gambling. There are corrupting and evil forces that always want to take your money.

The gambling interests always bring with them crime. Only a few years ago all of New Jersey's financial problems and Atlantic City's tourist problems were going to be solved by casino gambling. Well, what happened? Were these problems solved? NO!

The Atlantic City Chief of Police has said that in the three years since casino gambling was legalized there that street crime in New Jersey has increased 26% and 171% in Atlantic City.

Today with several casinos in full operation residents of New Jersey have come to the realization that all of those promises of five years ago, for the most part have gone unfulfilled. Atlantic City is still a deteriorating city. The poorer people and the senior citizens have been driven from homes and all the promised jobs have gone to outsiders. There is very little spillover of money into the rest of the economy because the casinos keep their customers close at hand. Yes, there were jobs created, about 32,000 in fact, since the casinos have gone outside and the unemployed of Atlantic City have remained unemployed. While the overall crime rate of Atlantic City has increased 171%, the violent crime rate of that city has increased 130%. Who gets all the money? That is simple, the casino operators. The extra tax has been for less than enough to pay for the additional crime that was brought in by the casinos. People were told their property taxes would go down—instead they have gone up.

Then there is a difference in the kind of tourist who comes. The average stay of the gambling tourist is three days. Most of the time, and sometimes all of it is spent in the casino. The average tourist stay in Florida is more than two weeks. We also have a great number of families and gambling does not attract families.

Let me quote Gov. Graham. "We have shown that Florida without legalized casinos is a state of economic progress. Since 1978, the economic development program has created 84,000 new jobs in this state. We have brought 387 new businesses into Florida. Nearly $3 billion in capital investment has come to the state during these three years. More than 80 million tourists

Gove students acquire love of books through RIF program

BELLE GLADE--

Through the action of the Palm Beach County School Board and individual contributions, Gove Elementary School distributed 750 books recently for children to take home and keep for their own.

Children from every grade level came to the Media Center, each choosing his own special book from the many books displayed.

Follow-up activities in the classroom, included writing a book report, writing letters of thanks and drawing book illustrations.

After sharing the books in the classroom, the books will be taken home to a special place where each youngster is beginning his own special library or collection of books.

Special prices rates on books have been made possible by Reading Is Fundamental, a national program concerning itself with motivating children to read.

Reading Is Fundamental believe the first step is to motivate children to want to read, then to encourage parents to help find a place at home where the youngster can get together his own collection of books. The RIF method encourages children to choose for themselves, books that personally interest them, letting the books be their's to keep. This way, youngsters may learn not only to read but to want to read.

Thanks to local businesses, PTA groups and individuals, this year along 3.5 million children will choose to keep at their own more than 11 million books.

Parents and teachers and interested citizens involved in planning the RIF Day were Betty Farrar, Jane Schoenfeld, Anne Lovell, Linda Chazin, Nancy Guzman, Mary Frances Cooper, Kathy Barr, Lynn Lazere, Nancy Smith, Eleanor Wolfe, Robin Boyle and Earlene Harrell.

Mrs. Goodbread to be honored

Summer camping for girls

Palm Glades Girl Scout Council announces a variety of summer camping opportunities for girls, ages 5-17, including members and non-Girl Scouts alike.

Day Camps will be held in seven locations within the Council's 6% county jurisdiction, providing a fun-filled environmental education for girls and with special emphasis on the out-of-doors. Each camp is scheduled to run for a two week duration although some may vary in scheduling ten-day morning sessions or eight day of morning and afternoon sessions.

The deadline for Day Camp registration is May 20, 1982. Resident Camping at Palm Glades summer resident camp, Camp Welaka, is located in Jupiter, Florida. Resident Girl Scout camping offers girls an adventurous discovery filled with laughter, song, sports, swimming, boating, hiking, horseback riding, crafts, not to mention new found friends in a beautiful outdoor setting. This year, there will be three camp sessions, each 12 days long, in June and July, 1982.

Supervision of all girls participating in the summer camping programs is provided by a well rounded and trained staff of adults. For further information and brochures on these exciting programs, contact the Palm Glades Girl Scout Council, (305) 582-5362, or write: 2728 Lake Worth Road, Lake Worth, Florida 33461.

Housing Authority extends closing date

PAHOKEE -- The Pahokee Housing Authority Board of Directors Friday, April 30, extended the closing date on the sale of the Everglades Labor Camp property at the request of Joe Alderman, Jr.

Alderman accompanied his request with a detailed account which showed he had spent $44,083.05 clearing the 57 acre tract to date.

He was awarded the property last year when he bid $5,135 per acre.

According to the authority's executive director, Randall J. Mills, Alderman's $291,695 bid was $78,500 higher the next highest bid at that time.

Only Director Frank Gillis voted against the extension.

Mills explained to the board that a realtor had informed him that an extension would not hurt the authority because the bid met or exceeded current land value for the property.

Several areas are producing increasing volumes of vegetable crops for the spring market. While the large Irish potato and sweet corn crops are in heavy volume and Ruskin is contributing more tomatoes, the watermelon harvest is beginning to put pressure on available transportation equipment.

Shortage of trucks a problem for growers

Shipments of fresh Florida vegetables to northern markets are continuing to climb weekly, and a shortage of trucks to haul the produce to market may coincide with peak harvests. Trucking interests, at the same time, complain that rates are too low to make produce hauling profitable.

This is becoming almost an annual problem -- a booming harvest in May and June and demands on the transportation industry which is increasingly pinched by high fuel prices. Clearly, there is a need for change in the manner in which Florida produces goods to market.

In the week ending April 16, shipments of Florida vegetables totaled about 166.5 million pounds as many crops planted after the January freeze came in to bearing. This compares with about 108 million pounds shipped in the week ending March 20, and 59 million pounds hauled out of Florida the week ending February 27.

Several areas are producing increasing volumes of vegetable crops for the spring market. While the large Irish potato and sweet corn crops are in heavy volume and Ruskin is contributing more tomatoes, the watermelon harvest is beginning to put pressure on available transportation equipment.

Because of replanting following the freeze, and generally favorable weather the crops are maturing somewhat faster than normal. This means the shipping peak is coming about two weeks earlier than usual. Last season peaked in the middle of May, and that also came after a mid-January freeze. On a three-year season average, shipping peaks in the third week in May.

We hope that these January freezes do not become the norm. But laying that consideration aside, increasing costs of operating long-haul trucks may force changes in the vegetable transportation system which developed largely as a result of cheap fuel before the OPEC-induced price increases began during the 1970's.

The Florida Fruit & Vegetable Association has provided some leadership in the direction of intermodal transportation which is most promising for relief in the future from seasonal truck shortages. Trailers loaded in Florida are being shipped by rail to northern points, unloaded then hooked up to truck tractors for the final run to the warehouse or terminal market.

This system combines the flexibility of over-the-road trucks with the fuel efficiency of the railroad for a cost saving on hauling costs.

Greater use of rail transportation capability combined with trucks in an intermodal system was indicated in a study of Florida vegetable transportation problems conducted by Dr. Gary Long of the University of Florida under a research grant sponsored by the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services.

This study's conclusion lends emphasis to the need to develop workable alternatives in transportation of perishable goods, looking toward future fuel problems and high truck transportation rates.

Vickers deployed

Pvt. Raymond Vickers, son of James R. and Louella Vickers of South Bay, is one of approximately 2,800 soldiers from the 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas, who deployed to Fort Drum, N.Y., for operation "Blue Norther."

The 30-day operation is designed to evaluate the deployment capabilities of the division and provide soldiers with the opportunity to train under cold weather conditions.

Training at Fort Drum will focus on combined arms training, live fire exercises and Army readiness test and evaluation training in field conditions for combat support and combat service support elements.

Vickers is an air defense gunnery crewman.

Newton promoted

Marine Gunnery Sgt. Brenda A. Newton, whose husband, Calvin, is the son of Sarah Lane of 303 Ave. A, Belle Glade, has been promoted to her present rank while serving with Headquarters and Service Battalion, 3rd Force Service Support Group, on Okinawa.

McKenny enters COHORT

Pvt. Ronald B. McKenny, son of Annie M. Robinson of 400 M. Ave. B, Place, Belle Glade, has entered Army basic training under a new training program called Project COHORT at Fort Ord, Calif.

Project COHORT (cohesion, operational readiness and training) is a test program designed to increase the cohesion, stability and readiness of a unit by allowing soldiers to train together and continue together throughout their entire initial enlistment.

He is a 1981 graduate of Glades Central High School in Belle Glade.

Nursing...

And proud of it

Is theme of National Nurses Week

PAHOKEE — Everglades Memorial Hospital in Pahokee is using Florida Nurses Week not only to honor their nurses, but to try to attract more nurses to the hospital, according to Debbie Queen, the hospital's nursing director and Chris Hamilton, the assistant director.

"Nursing... and proud of it," has been the theme of Florida Nurses Week celebrated since Monday, May 3.

"According to Queen, the hospital currently employs 38 nurses. An average of eight nurses are on duty during any one shift and two of the nurses are on 24 hour call.

The hospital could use more nurses, said Hamilton, but it has a problem attracting people to the area.

A typical nurse at Everglades Memorial is constantly on the go, said Hamilton, taking care of 30 patients. Between October 1980 and September 1981, the hospital had 3,780 admissions, 860 of which were deliveries and 643 operations.

On the job experience isn't enough, though. All nurses have to take 22 hours of continuing education courses every two years to keep up with advances in their profession.

"Nurses are pretty terrific people," said Hamilton.

Nurses taken on an added load of responsibility in recent years, Queen and Hamilton added.

There are more patients and more treatments to be given them than ever before, thus increasing the workload upon both nurses and doctors. All the nurses at Everglades Memorial are also trained in cardio-pulmonary resuscitation.

To become a nurse, a person has three education options.

He or she can earn a two year associate degree, a three year diploma degree or a four year bachelor's degree. The diploma degrees are being phased out, according to Queen.

After completing the education requirements, potential nurses must pass the state board.

VA nurse program launched

The Veterans Administration has launched a $4 million scholarship program in its efforts to ensure sufficient nursing staff in the nation's largest health care system.

VA Administrator Robert P. Nimmo said the scholarships will go to about 300 qualified nursing students to provide educational benefits on a pay-back-in-service basis.

In return for each year of the scholarship — which provides tuition, educational expenses and a monthly stipend — participants will agree to serve a minimum of two years as full-time nurse in facilities of the VA's health care system.

Applications and information about the program are available from VA Health Professional Scholarship Program, Office of Academic Affairs.

Mrs. James Chamblee, social chairman, reported that six members had attended the Founder's Day Luncheon, Saturday, April 25th at Ringland Hall. She also reported that the group will attend Palm Beach

Junior College play "Tribute" for the May social.

Members attending the meeting were: Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Chamblee, Mrs. Corbin, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Acree, Mrs. Enfinger, and Mrs. Swager.

SONYA WATKINS

The recipe of the week comes to us from Sonya Watkins, the librarian and photographer at the Agricultural Research and Education Center in Belle Glade.

Sonya was born in Louisiana. She received her BS degree in English with a minor in secondary education from the University of Southern Mississippi. She and her husband Waldon have two boys, Toney, 6, and Ian, 2. They moved to Belle Glade in 1975.

She is a member of the Belle Glade Business and Professional Women's Club and will serve as recording secretary this year. Her hobbies include antique furniture and helping her husband restore antique cars.

FRUIT COCKTAIL CAKE

2 cups of plain flour (do not use self rising)
1 1/2 cups of sugar
2 eggs
1 1/2 oz. can of fruit cocktail
heaping teaspoon of baking soda

Cook's corner

dash of salt
topping: 1 cup of pecans
1 cup of brown sugar
1 cup of coconut (optional)
icing: 1 1/2 cups of sugar
1 cup of undiluted can milk
1 stick of margarine or butter

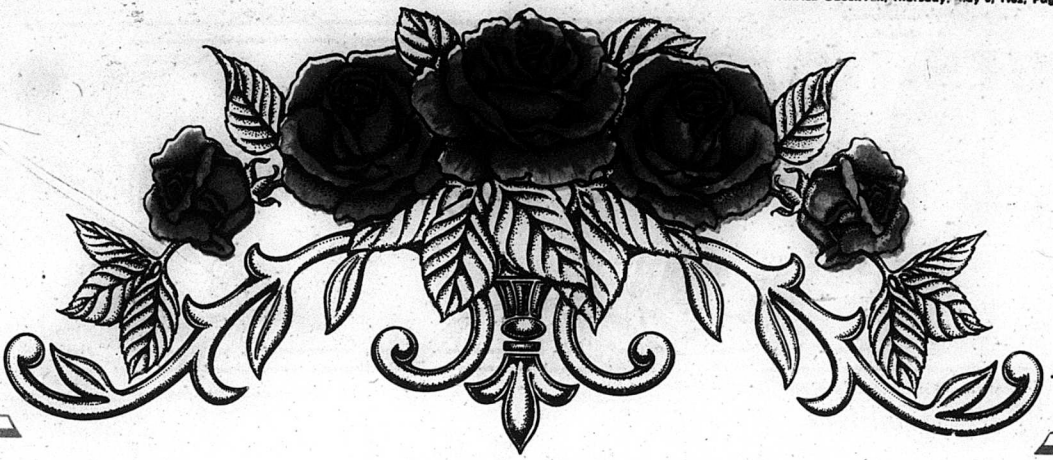

Combine the flour, sugar, baking soda, salt, and eggs. Drain the fruit cocktail and use the juice to mix the dry ingredients. After the batter is mixed, fold the fruit cocktail into the batter. Do not overmix the batter. Pour into a 9 inch cake pan.

Sprinkle the brown sugar over the top of the cake, then place the pecans on top of the brown sugar. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes or until firm to the touch.

Prepare the icing just before the cake is ready to come out of the oven. Combine the three ingredients, bring to a boil. Boil from one to two minutes.

Pour the icing over the cake as soon as it comes out of the oven. Stick holes in the cake with a knife so the icing will run down into the cake and around the edges.

Sonya says she sprinkles the coconut over the cake before pouring the icing. At Christmas she also adds cherries before pouring the icing.

Mama

Yes, MOTHER by any name is special.

Special as the roses we give her on occasion.

Like the flower, mothers are found in variety.

They are not all alike.

Having many loving ways, each is charming and adored.

The remembrance of a rose lasts for a brief time, that of a mother, forever.

VOLUME 44-NUMBER 29

THURSDAY, MAY 6, 1982

BELLE GLADE-PAHOKEE, FL.

Our new home...

The Herald-Observer is now serving you from modern, new quarters in the Two T Plaza, Belle Glade. Founded in 1924, the Herald-Observer will soon be announcing an open house to celebrate our big move. Though we have moved, our commitment to professional and accurate news reporting remains unchanged. We will continue to be the only weekly newspaper devoted exclusively to serving the needs of western Palm Beach County. The Herald-Observer is the only local newspaper produced and printed exclusively in the Glades. Come see us at No. 3, 1417 N. W. Ave. L, Two T Plaza, Belle Glade, or call us at 996-2056. Shown above are Herald-Observer staff members (left) Jeff Brown - staff writer, Alan Bruni - advertising representative, Brenda Bunting - office manager, Alma Henry - associate editor, Camilla Morris - advertising representative, Kim Allen - advertising manager, Grady Mesimer - general manager, and Jim Jones - editor.

Criminal beware! Someone is watching you

BELLE GLADE—Glades residents may feel a little more at ease the next time they leave home on a vacation thanks to a new program underway by concerned citizens of the community and the Belle Glade Police Department.

Several concerned citizens and members of the Belle Glade Police Department have formed the Belle Glade Crime Watch, Inc.

The Action Committee of the Glades Crime Watch, Inc., held its first organizational meeting Tuesday night at the Belle Glade City Hall.

The committee of concerned citizens and members of the Police Department elected officers and set a date for its monthly meetings. Meetings will be held the second Thursday of each month.

According to information released by the Belle Glade Police Department, Crime Watch is a program of mutual assistance among neighbors aimed at reducing crime in the community at the grass roots level.

It involves getting to know one's neighbors and introducing them to the concept of Crime Watch—that is good neighbors working together, alert to the potential of crime and willing to look out for another's interests.

The Belle Glade Crime Watch, Inc., is similar to other crime watch programs now in operation in cities throughout Florida.

A booklet issued by the corporate officers of the Belle Glade Crime Watch, Inc., states the program is designed to ultimately involve hundreds of residents throughout the City of Belle Glade who will be trained to report suspicious activities in their neighborhoods and develop other techniques of crime prevention such as home security methods, person property registration, and seminars on crime resistance in their areas.

The Crime Watch program will provide a sense of security for individuals or families who leave their homes vacant for any length of time. As well, the program will help to coordinate the efforts of law enforcement with the community in tracking down criminals.

Inspector Mike Miller of the police department said Crime Watch encourage citizens to come forward with information. Although citizens are asked to come forward with information, Miller said their identities will remain unknown.

"Even a court of law can't penetrate the organization to have informants names released," said Miller.

The next committee meeting will be held Thursday, May 13 at the old Belle Glade City Hall, located on S.W. Ave. A., at 7:30 p.m.

Belle Glade Crime Watch, Inc., will need volunteers to serve on various committees.

Persons interested in Crime Watch and desiring additional may call Lt. Dan Crist at the Belle Glade Police Department.

Premiere performance

'Tribute' opens at PBJC-Glades Friday

Everything will be ready for the 8 p.m. curtain time Friday night for the first ever play to be presented in the new Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center at Palm Beach Junior College Glades, but it hasn't been easy.

So says Dr. Barry Russel, PBJC teacher, and organizer of the Glades College and Community Theatre, which is producing the show.

"Everybody had to work on scenery," Dr. Russel says. "Cost and crew and anybody who happened to walk in."

Russel, who is directing "Tribute", the Broadway hit selected for the opening play, explains that the new theater has absolutely no old scenery which can be adapted for the new play. "We started with absolutely nothing," he said. "But we'll be ready."

"Tribute", by Bernard Slade, is the story of an entertainment personality who has led a superficial life until, at age 51, he discovers he is dying of cancer.

His reaction to this news, often comic and sometimes tender, is the stuff from which the play is made.

Jack Lemmon played the central role in the movie. The part he played, Scotty Templeton, will be played by James Montgomery, Clewiston, who played the lead in "Prisoner of Second Avenue," the first play produced by the Glades College and Community Theatre, in a converted classroom.

Scotty's son, Judd, will be played by Byron Branyon, Belle Glade, a student at PBJC.

Scotty's ex-wife, Maggie, will be played by Alicia Lancaster, Belle Glade, a full time employee at the college, and also a student there.

Sally Haynes, a friend to Scotty and Judd will be played by Adele Kimball, Belle Glade, who, like Montgomery, is from the community, but is taking a drama class at the college.

Jane Shepard, of Belle Glade, is playing the important part of Scotty's doctor, Dr. Gladys Petrelli.

Pam and Bill Hatch, husband and wife actors from Clewiston, play the parts of Hillary and Lou Daniels.

Lighting is being handled by Kurt Wagner, Belle Glade, sound by Gene Bair, a PBJC student, and the stage manager is Sally Seigler, Belle Glade.

Tickets, at $3.00 each, may be purchased at the college bookstore during the day, or at the auditorium in the evening. They may be reserved by telephone.

Glades telephone numbers are 996-3055 for the college and 996-7529 or 996-7532 for the box office. From the coastal areas, the college may be reached at 439-8160.

Advance sale assures a good audience for both Friday and Saturday evening performances.

Red Cross barbecue plans made

BELLE GLADE—The annual American Red Cross Memorial Day Weekend Barbecue is planned for Sunday, May 30 at the Belle Glade Marina from 12:30 until 4:00 p.m.

"Firearmatics" Competition will be held among the various fire departments and ambulance services in the Glades Area.

Doug Manger will chair the "bucket brigade" committee for the second year with Steve Rice assisting. This special event is scheduled for early in the afternoon. The winning team will be presented with the Red Cross-Firearmatics traveling trophy which is currently held by the Belle Glade paid fire department.

Skip, Debby, and Marilyn of Pahokee will provide musical entertainment for the afternoon. Sunshine Watersports, Ltd., will provide entertainment in the afternoon.

The Belle Glade Police Department with Glenn Betts as Chairman will cook the chickens. Door prizes will be awarded throughout the afternoon. Tickets will sell for $5 adults and $2.50 children under ten. Tickets will be available at the Barbecue and from Red Cross Committee members.

For further information call the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce 996-2745.

Proceeds from the benefit will be used to further the cause of establishing a Red Cross office in the Glades Area.

PBJC-Glades goes to summer class hours

Belle Glade - Beginning with the week of Monday, May 3, Palm Beach Junior College Glades Campus will go on a four-day week for the Spring and Summer Terms, continuing the Monday through Thursday week through August 5.

This is the third consecutive year for the modified work week, an energy and cost-saving measure made possible by the smaller enrollments during the two six-week terms in the summer months.

College offices will not be open on Friday. Some activities will continue on weekends, but use of the central air conditioning system will be avoided most of the time. Monday through Thursday, offices will typically open a half hour earlier, at 7:30 a.m., and remain open 45 minutes later, until 4:45 p.m. Employees on a 35 hour week will work 8:45 hours per day and 40-hour employees will work 10 hours per day.

Scavengers could be liable

By JEFF BROWN

BELLE GLADE — Garbage will become the property of the city as soon as it is placed in a container for collection, and anyone caught taking garbage will be criminally liable, according to ordinances under consideration by the Belle Glade City Commission.

Anyone caught using a dumpster they are not paying to use will also be liable under the ordinances.

The problems of garbage containers, their contents and their use were discussed at a Belle Glade City Commission legislative workshop Thursday, April 22.

City Manager Rolfe Wagner presented proposed revisions in the city's garbage and trash ordinance.

Wagner told the commissioners that illegal use of dumpsters has been rising since the opening of the Palm Beach County Solid Waste Authority transfer station. Many people are unwilling to pay the tipping fees at the station and instead use dumpsters throughout the city.

Wagner said the revisions, which make garbage the property of the city and prohibit anyone from removing it other than the city or the person who pays for the use of the receptacle, "gives the city a tool" to control the illegal dumping.

That revision will also keep people from scavenging through the receptacles and making messes in those areas, he said.

"You're going to put a lot of people out of business," said Commissioner Charles Goodlett. "There's an awful lot of people who make their living going out and collecting cans from it."

City Attorney John Baker said a provision allowing an agent of the property owner to remove garbage would not include scavengers.

"If you do that, you might as well not put this provision in," said Wagner.

The commissioners decided to include a provision which would call for all scavengers to have a city permit and the permission of the property owner before they would be allowed to rummage through garbage receptacles.

Wagner said he thought most of the debris laying around dumpsters was due to the scavengers and encouraged the council to try to prevent the activity. Several commissioners disagreed and said they felt the bulk of the problem was caused by residents of rooming houses illegally using the receptacles at stores and shopping centers.

Several commissioners also asked how ordinances prohibiting illegal dumping would be enforced.

"It's a very difficult practical enforcement problem," said Baker.

Wagner said illegal dumpsters could be traced through their garbage which may include mailing addresses.

Mayor Thomas L. Altman agreed that enforcement may be "iffy," but said "I think we've got to have the provision there."

He suggested that if the city catches one or two people a year and prosecutes them, it may act as a deterrent.

The commissioners rejected most of the revisions Wagner submitted concerning the collection of trash.

Wagner suggested that all lawn and garden clippings be placed in plastic bags because they clog storm drains. Altman said he never saw storm drains blocked by lawn clippings and didn't think it was a "practical" requirement.

The commission also rejected a suggestion that tree branches be cut into four foot lengths, deciding residents can still place the branches out in eight foot lengths.

The commissioners expressed the hope that holding property owners responsible for their area will help clean up the garbage situation.

"This ain't no easy way to cleaning up the mess we got," said Commissioner George Gelfort. "In fact, I'm wondering if we even can clean it up."

May marks ARC's first recycling year

Over 78,000 pounds of aluminum cans have been recycled in the past year by the Association for Retarded Citizens. With an average of 24 cans to each pound, this means approximately 1,874,184 cans were recycled in the past year, according to Trisha Blash, executive director.

The ARC Aluminum Recycling Center is operated cooperatively with National Brands and the Anheuser-Busch Corporation. Assisting the ARC in providing job training to handicapped citizens, the other benefits of recycling aluminum cans are many, according to Blash.

One of these benefits is energy savings. A can made from recycled aluminum requires only five percent as much energy as one manufactured from aluminum ore. Every 20 pounds of aluminum recycled is the equivalent of saving 3 gallons of gasoline.

While helping to keep streets clean, aluminum can recycling also provides income to these individuals who collect and resell them.

The current price per pound for aluminum cans is .23. During the month of May the ARC will run an anniversary special and pay a .01 per pound bonus to all customers selling 500 or more pounds at one time, said Blash.

Hours of operation are Tuesday and Friday 9 a.m. - 12 noon and 1 p.m. - 3 p.m. On Saturdays the ARC Aluminum Recycling Center is open from 8 a.m. - 12 noon.

Hunt urges purchase of new bulldozer

BELLE GLADE — A new, heavier bulldozer would greatly lengthen the life of the Pahokee Landfill currently under the operation of the Palm Beach Solid Waste Authority, according to the authority's Executive Director Timothy F. Hunt, Jr.

According to Hunt, the landfill will be closed out by December of this year if the authority continues to use the two light bulldozers it currently has at the site. Once the site is closed out, the authority must go to another dump at a greater cost to dispose of its garbage.

Hunt proposed the authority trade in one of its bulldozers and purchase another, heavier one.

A newer bulldozer would also hold down maintenance costs.

A heavier bulldozer would extend the life of the Pahokee landfill because it would compact the garbage placed in the site, according to Hunt.

More garbage could be placed there, extending its life through the next budget year, he said.

Don Tanner, a member of the Glades Budget and Policy Advisory Committee, and Hunt were appointed by the committee to look for used bulldozers in the South Florida area.

East Lake students see 'Carmen'

PAHOKEE-Sixth and seventh grade students from East Lake Middle School for the second consecutive year were afforded the opportunity to attend an opera performance without leaving Pahokee.

The Junior Opera Guild of the Palm Beach Opera presented its performance of Carmen Wednesday, April 21, at the Prince Theater.

Dr. Paul Cosnka directed the special condense version of Carmen and Seymour Schonberg provided the musical accompaniment on the piano.

Mrs. Eugenia Jones, assistant principal at East Lake, said teachers at the school taught the opera to the students prior to the performance.

Shouts of "Bravo" between each scene could be heard. Mrs. Jones said the students also dressed up for the occasion. Wednesday's presentation was one of 26 given for students in Palm Beach and Martin Counties during the school year by the Junior Opera Guild. Ariane Cosnka served as narrator for the opera. Mrs. Marid Nagid is the Guild's president.

The cast included four performers.

First American Bank accepts payments

Belle Glade and Pahokee area television subscribers to Jones Interchange, Inc., will be able to make their monthly payments beginning May 1, at local offices of the First American Bank of Palm Beach County, announced Leonard H. Bierer, vice president of First American Bank and Kevin McLaughlin, regional manager of Jones Interchange, Inc.

Located at 801 South Main St., the Belle Glade office of First American Bank is open from 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday - Thursday, 9 a.m. - 6 p.m., Friday and 9 a.m. - 12 noon, Saturday.

Pahokee area subscribers may make their payments at the First American Bank, 766 Larrimore Rd. The lobby of the Pahokee office is open 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday - Thursday, 9 a.m. - 6 p.m., Friday day, and 8 a.m. - 12 noon, Saturday. Drive-up hours are 7:30 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday - Thursday, 7:30 a.m. - 6 p.m., Friday and 7:30 a.m. - 12 noon, Saturday.

Your phone can be on vacation too

If you're planning on leaving town for more than two months, Southern Belle can save you money by simply suspending your telephone service instead of disconnecting it while you're gone. A call to your local business office is all that's needed to put your telephone on vacation.

"Southern Belle offers a special vacation service if you are going away for more than two months but less than nine months," says Southern Belle local manager Bob White. "The vacation rate is $4.50 per month and the charge to restore your service when you return is only $17.00."

Suspending service rather than disconnecting it means you can keep the same number and listing in the telephone directory. The seasonal customers who connect and disconnect their phones usually never appear in the directory because their numbers change so frequently. This annual listing is especially valuable when the vacation service's automatic referral system is used. With this system, callers receive a current number where someone can be reached when they call the number on vacation service. When you are ready to restore regular telephone service, one call to the business office is all that is necessary. According to White, your telephone should be ready to use within one day of your call.

Arabia Order has successful fund effort

WEST PALM BEACH—Masud Temple No. 69 Ancient Egyptian Arabia Order Nobles Mystic Shrine of North and South America and its Jurisdictions, Inc., held its Annual Potentates Ball at the West Palm Beach Auditorium Tuesday.

The affair was well attended with an overflowing crowd. Among the highlights of the ball was the annual grand march. Participating in the march and escorted by the Marshall were Daughter Mary Washington, Imperial Deputy of the Desert of Jacksonville, Imperial Deputy of the Oasis, Daughter Dorothy Oliver of Belle Glade, Illustrious Commanders, Daughter Alice Wright of West Palm Beach; Noble David Lawrence, Illustrious Potentate and Daughter Mary Lawrence.

Mrs. Oliver said proceeds from the ball will be donated to the Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation. Among the many projects sponsored by Masud Court No. 71, Daughter of Isis and Masud Temple No. 69 were the donation of Easter eggs, bubble gum and candy to 79 children in the Palm Beach County Juvenile Detention Home and the Maxine Griffin Home for the Elderly. Additional donations were also given to the American Lung Association, March of Dimes, and clothes to needy children and the mentally retarded.
